

Commented Version

General Syllabus Structure

1. General Information
2. Course Description:
3. Course Promises or Learning Goals:
- 3.b. Professors Responsibilities and Evaluation of Professor
4. Course Requirements and Student Evaluation

Optional:

Participation

General

- Active discussion
- Preparedness
- Respect for classroom

in class:

- Literature Summary
- Literature Discussion
- Project Presentations
- Group projects and discussions

outside of class:

- Course web-site, wikis, blogs
- learning groups
- activities in relation to course subject

Exams

- Written short/long
- Oral exam (viva voce) short/long/group

Posters

Video Documentaries

Papers

- Response
- Short (2-5 pages)
- Research (15 – 30 pages)
- Group
- Report
- Literature Review
- Policy Proposal
- Campaign Proposal
- Research Grant Proposal

Speech

Website

Wikis

Blogs

Discussion Groups

Literature Panels
Dramatic presentation
Extra points for activism and civics
Grading

5. ADA

6. Statement regarding plagiarism and cheating

7. Required Reading

8. Additional Sources

9. Class Syllabus

Session XX
Topic
Description
Required Reading
Additional sources
Learning Objectives