- Digital Cultural Health Care Capital. (as PI) target grant size: €350,000/$ 500,000 (already gone through NSF first round)
- Minor Powers: Attention Economies, Biodigital Citizenship, and the Political Imagination in a ScienceCraft Era (as PI) target grant size: between €650,000 and €1.5 million (already gone through NSF first round)
- Algorithmic Jurisprudence? From lex automata to legal bots. target grant size: €350,000
- Insulin Cyborgs (as Co-PI) collaboration with Liselotte Hermes da Fonseca (Max Planck Institute Halle), target grant size: €350,000
- Nomadic Statehood or Actor-Network States? On techno-scientific governance (as Co-PI) collaboration with Nicholas Rowland (Penn State), target grant size: $ 500,000
- Gastronomic Labor Relations and Interactions (as Co-PI) collaborator Gareth Edel (New Jersey Institute of Technology), target grant size: $ 250,000
- Cosplaying as incarnation of transmediality, target: seed grants for student projects

At FMSH, with Gilles Lhuilier:

- Transnational Law and Extractive Industries (as collaborator in grant writing and research) Prof. Gilles Lhuilier is the PI for ERC Advanced Grant, FMSH, Paris and Univ. Rennes. Grant Size: €2.5 million/$3.5 million
- Museums and International Criminal Court (Aesthetication and ICC). (M-ICC), ANR, target grant size: €450,000 (currently in phase 2 of evaluation)
- Transnational Law, Ecosystems, Biotechnology. (as co-director w/Lhuilier) H2020 COFUND proposal for multiple partner institutes, target grant: €10,000,000
- Development of a plan for a Research Development Unit for junior researchers
- Project on European Research criteria for “excellence”, target grant size: €450,000
- Franco-German project “Digitalization of Primary Care”, target grant size: €450,000

As external grant developer:

- The Techno-Social Imaginary of General and Family Medicine Practitioners, developed for IAM Erlangen, University Clinic Erlangen, target grant size: €150,000
- Digitalization of General and Family Medicine, developed for IAM Erlangen, University Clinic Erlangen, target grant size: €250,000

RESEARCH INTEREST CLUSTERS

- Bioeconomies in the global rural-urban matrix and the city without urban normativity
- The historical and political ontology of embodied, enacted, and extended (trans-species?) cognitive cultures of biodigital and bioeconomic belonging and participation
- Decoloniality: Indigenous knowledges, alternative forms of statehood, border identities
- Sex(ualities) and food in embodied cognition
- The body
- Cognitive cultures of technologies in the 3 E's registers (Embodied, Enactive, Extended)
- Digitalization of health care and biomedicine
- Transmedial imaginaries of techno-science and of (radical) Otherness
- Attention economy vs. attention ecologies: Cultural techniques & biodigital transformation

CURRENT RESEARCH

- Bioeconomies as technologies zones and extended, embodied, and enacted cognitive (transspecies) cultures. (Can there be bioeconomies before and beyond a Western referent?)
- Technologies of Appetites: Embodied cognitive cultures of food, sex, and gender
- Biodigital belonging and agency in a ScienceCraft era: Ecologies & Economies of ADHD
- 'Braining your life/Living your brain': The persuasive power of techno-scientific imaginaries (gender, sex[uality], ageing, and mental health)
- The city without urban normativity
- The politics of tangibility: Technological objects, techno-normativities, modes of production
- Digital health care capital and generative justice
- The transatlantic media-archeology of the human body and its information architecture
- When is a state? On nomadic statehood.

FUTURE RESEARCH

- Algorithmic Jurisprudence? From lex automata to legal bots (beginning ca. 2021)
- Ethics of Intimacy (beginning ca. 2040)

RESEARCH COLLABORATIONS

Gilles Lhuillier & others (ENS, FMSH, etc.), Yvonne Foerster (LeuphanaU), Liselotte Hermes da Fonseca (Max Planck Inst. Halle), Mohammad Golam Nabi Mozumder (Bangladesh Inst. of Development Studies), Nicholas Rowland (Penn State) & others, Franck Leibovici (FMSH), Julien Seroussi (FMSH), Beatrice Parance (Paris 8), Gareth Edel (New Jersey Inst. of Tech.), Sabrina M. Weiss (Rochester Inst. of Tech.), Sal Restivo (Rensselaer Polytech. Inst.), Thomas Kühlein & others (Institute for General Medicine, Univ. Clinic Erlangen), Petra Maitz (artist&curator)

EARLY DEVELOPMENTAL STAGE COLLABORATIVE PROJECTS

- Gastronomy labor and interaction in restaurants, bars, and kitchens (with Gareth Edel)²
- Writing as Cultural Technique. (with Mohammad Golam Nabi Mozumder)²
- Temporalities of agency in technoscience (with Gareth Edel)¹
- Insulin Cyborgs? Growing up diabetic in 21st century Denmark, Germany, USA/Canada. (with Liselotte Hermes da Fonseca)³
- “How many dimensions is my body?” – The production of patients’ body-self image through imaging technology (2D) and plastinates (3D) (with Liselotte Hermes da Fonseca)²
- The state of the techno-scientific state? Actor-network or nomad (with Nicholas Rowland)⁴

PAST RESEARCH

- Original Research (Postdoc): Epistemic disobedience and the legitimacy of the Digital Age
- With Sabrina Weiss and Sal Restivo (PostDoc): New Horizons in Science Studies
- Independent Consultant(Postdoc.) for project developer in public and community health
- Original Research (Postdoc./Postgrad.): 1) Meta review on obesity, ADHD, and academic performance: Studies, lifestyles, and therapy pathways, 2) The curious case of Arnold Bergstraesser: Carl Friedrich versus Der Aufbau (1942-45), 3) The biological vernacular in philosophy, psychology, and the social sciences, 18th to 20th century
- PhD Research Project: Conceptual history of Harvard's Human&Social Relations movement
- Ethnographies: 1) Gastronomy workers, 2) Martial arts, health, and development, 3) HipHop event culture, 4) Border dwellers: Bengali immigrants in Germany, 5) Patients between Western and alternative medicine
- MA Research Project: The genealogy of the Enlightenment discourse, the history of the Frankfurt School and Critical Theory, and the intellectual biography of Michel Foucault
- Research Assistant (Undergrad./Grad.): 1) Transnational identities in border Regions, 2) Consultants for non-profit organizations: Cantina workers and abelist/disability challenges, 3) University evaluation, 4) Medical and mental fitness of urban pre-schoolers and the work of communal school-medical examiners.

FORMER AREAS OF COMPETENCE (no longer actively pursued after MA or PhD)

Financial Sociology · Sociology of Religion · Sociology of (Mass)Media and (Intercultural) Communication · Sociology of Ethnicity and Family · Sociology of Fascism · Sociology of Childhood Development and Deviance · Philosophy of Action · Philosophy of Mind and Language · Classic and Transclassical Logic · Cultural Hybridity, (Trans-) Nationalism, and Postmodernity in American Literature

² continuing previous years of solo-research

³ full project after explorative phase pending research financing can be secured for Dr. Hermes da Fonseca

⁴ pending research grant for student research assistants
